

Directions/Information for ARRL/VEC Amateur Radio License Examinations

Hope Presbyterian Church, Austin, TX
11512 Olson Drive – West (W) Building, Room 3
Austin, TX 78750

NEW LOCATION JANUARY 2020

From the intersection of U.S. Highway 183 and Anderson Mill Road, turn west on Anderson Mill Road and go to the second traffic light. Turn left onto Olson Drive and the church is on your right across from Spicewood Elementary School. Instead of turning left onto Olson Drive you can also proceed to the next traffic light and turn left onto Spicewood Parkway Drive. The church is on your left. You can park in any available parking lot or the street and follow the walkways to the West Building. The exams are in West Bldg., Room 3.

The processing and exams will start promptly at 9:00 AM so please come at least 15 minutes early. The examination fee is $15.00 payable in cash or by check made out to ARRL/VEC. Get in touch with Joe Makeever if you have questions about the process, paperwork or identifications that you may need to provide. We will provide you with application forms (NCVEC Form 605) or you can download the PDF at the following address: http://www.arrl.org/files/file/VEs/NCVEC%20Form%20605_2018_Interactive.pdf. Please computer type your information on the electronic screen form prior to printing and then bring it to the upcoming test session. This will greatly reduce the chance of someone misreading your handwriting. You will sign your name with a black pen at the test session. If you already have an Amateur Radio License bring it or print an official copy that you can download at <https://wireless2.fcc.gov/UlsApp/UlsSearch/searchLicense.jsp>.
